

Nancy Soderberg
Curriculum Vitae

Current Position

Distinguished Visiting Scholar and Director of Public Policy Initiatives
Department of Political Science and Public Administration
University of North Florida
September 2006 to present

Address: 1031 First Street South, Apt 1008, Jacksonville, Florida 32250, Phone: 646-591-0912; email: nsoderberg@comcast.net

Citizenship: USA

EDUCATION

M.S. 1984 School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, Washington, DC.
Concentration: Development Economics.

B.A. 1980 Vanderbilt University, Nashville, TN. June 1980. Concentration:
French, minor economics. Junior Year spent at the Sorbonne in Paris, France.

EXPERIENCE

2006- Distinguished Visiting Scholar and Director of Public Policy Initiatives, University of Northern Florida, Jacksonville, Florida. Guest lecturer for Global Issues Spring 2006, teaching Global Issues Fall 2006.

2001-5 Vice President for Multilateral Affairs, International Crisis Group, New York, New York. International organization based in Brussels, Belgium, which advocates policies for world conflict prevention. Responsible for advocacy at the United Nations and other multilateral institutions.

2002-6 President of the Sister Cities Program of the City of New York.
Appointed by Mayor Michael Bloomberg. Volunteer service.

2004 Adjunct Professor at Columbia University, New York, New York.

1997-2001 Alternate Representative to the United Nations, Presidential Appointee with rank of Ambassador, New York, New York. Responsibilities included representing the US at the UN Security Council on a wide range of national security issues. Represented US in negotiations at the Security Council, participated in mission to key conflict areas, and promoted U.S.
national security policy at the UN and with the leadership of other nations.

- 1993-1996 Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs (1994-1996) and Staff Director of National Security Council (1993-1994), Washington, DC. Responsible for day-to-day crisis management, briefing the President, developing U.S. national security policy and handling issues regarding the press and Congress.
- 1992 Foreign Policy Director of the Clinton/Gore 1992 Presidential Campaign, Little Rock, Arkansas.
- 1988-1992 Senior Foreign Policy Advisor to Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Washington, DC. Advised Senator on key foreign policy issues, drafted legislation, wrote speeches.
- 1988 Foreign Policy Director, Dukakis/Bentsen presidential campaign, Boston, Massachusetts.
- 1985-88 Foreign Policy Advisor to Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Washington, DC.
- 1980-82 Budget Analyst, New England Merchants National Bank, Boston, Massachusetts.

Publications – Books and chapters

The Superpower Myth, The Use and Misuse of Military Might, John Wiley and Sons, 2005.

“Role of the United Nations in An Age of U.S. Hegemony,” Dag Hamarskjold and the Future of the UN, Algrave Macmillan.

“Imperatives for the International Community in Iraq,” Iraq and America: Choices and Consequences, Ellen Laipson and Maureen S. Steinbruner Editors, The Henry L. Stimson Center, Washington, DC, 2006.

“A threat to One is a Threat to All: On the New Collective Security,” Ethics and International Affairs, Volume 20, Number 2, 2006.

"US-UN Relationship-- a Difficult But Necessary Parthnership," American Foreign Policy Interests, Volume 28, N. 4, August/2006, pp 311-318.

“The United Nations Joins the New War,” Georgetown Journal of International Affairs, November 2002.

Work in Progress

The Prosperity Agenda: What the World Wants from America and What We Need in Return, with Brian Katulis, publication date July 4, 2008, John Wiley and Sons.

Articles

“Peacekeepers Are not Peacemakers,” The New York Times, August 2, 2006.

“The Four Big Myths Behind the Lebanon Crisis,” Financial Times, July 31, 2006.

“The U.S. Must Use Influence to Cool Tensions in the Middle East, Florida Times Union, July 21, 2006.

“Intervention Gap in Africa,” May 30, 2006.

“The UN’s Missed Opportunity,” Financial Times, September 14, 2005.

“Why Women Matter,” Salon.com, August 2005.

“Turns Out Diplomacy Works,” Washington Monthly, May 1, 2005.

“America’s Place on the World Stage: Time for Bush to Abandon the Superpower Myth,” San Francisco Chronicle, April 24, 2005.

“Ambassador or Embitterer,” The American Prospect, April 5, 2005.

“Is Bush Worth a Second Look?” Globe and Mail, March 23, 2005.

“America’s Forgotten War,” The Boston Globe, March 21, 2005.

“The African Union Moves a Quiet Revolution,” The Christian Science Monitor, February 2005.

“To the Front, Reluctantly,” The Washington Post, June 20, 2004.

“Take Back the United Nations,” The Washington Times, January 21, 2003.

US Forces Have to Stay in Afghanistan,” International Herald Tribune, February 18, 2002.

Media Appearances (sampling only, regular commentator on MSNBC and major networks)

The Al Franken Show, Air America Radio, August 22, 2006.

O’Reilly Factor, FOX, August 21, 2006.

Tucker with Tucker Carlson, MSNBC, July 24, 2006.

Have your Say, BBC, July 2006.

The Situation with Tucker Carlson, MSNBC, April 4, 2006.

O’Reilly Factor, FOX, February 9, 2006 on terrorism.

Playing for the Future, WNYC, September 7, 2005.

Discussion of Withdrawal from Iraq, PBS, June 20, 2005.

Discussion of Bolton’s UN nomination, NPR, April 11, 2005.

Surprise Pick, NewsHour With Jim Lehrer, PBS, March 8, 2005.

The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, Comedy Central, March 1, 2005.

UN Report Proposes Organizational Reforms, PBS, December 2, 2004.

A Troubled Transition, NewsHour with Jim Lehrer, PBS, April 19, 2004.

Policy on Cuban/Haitian Refugees Differs Greatly, NPR, April 6, 2004.

BBC with Tim Sebastian, March 21, 2003.

HARDtalk, BBC, March 21, 2003.

BBC, February 25, 2003,

BBC, July 31, 2000.

BBC, May 16, 2000.

Professional Affiliations

Council on Foreign Relations, New York, New York, member;

Concern Worldwide, New York, New York, member of board;

National Committee on American Foreign Policy, New York, New York,
Advisory Board;

Tannenbaum Center, New York, New York, Advisory Board.

Languages

French – fluent; Spanish – proficient.